|------------------------|--|
| 1 Eggplant | 2 tsp Thyme, dried |
| 2 Zucchini | 4 Tbsp Extra Virgin Olive Oil or Avocado Oil |
| 2 Yellow Summer Squash | 15oz can Fire Roasted Diced Tomatoes |
| 1 Yellow Onion | 3-4 sprigs Basil, fresh |
| 1 Red Bell Pepper | 1/4 c Parmesan or Manchego cheese, grated |
| 1 pt Cherry Tomatoes | 1/2 tsp Salt |
| 4 Garlic Cloves | 1/2 tsp Black Pepper |
| 2 Tbsp Rosemary, fresh | |

PROCEDURE

Preheat oven to 425 degrees-convection feature on if possible, and line 2 baking sheet pans with foil for easy cleanup or grease pan with olive or avocado oil.

Cut the eggplant, zucchini, squash, bell pepper and onion into large diced pieces, approximately 1" thickness, dividing each equally between the two sheet pans.

Slice the cherry tomatoes in half and divide equally between the pans.

Finely chop the garlic cloves and divide equally between the pans.

Finely chop the rosemary, mix with the dried thyme and divide equally between the pans.

Add 2 Tbsp of oil to each pan and season with salt and pepper. Mix the oil and seasonings thoroughly through the diced vegetables with hands.

Place pans in oven for 20 minutes, until veggies are roasted and nicely browned at edges.

Remove pans from oven. Add 1/2 of the can of tomatoes to each pan and return to oven for 5 minutes.

Remove pans from oven, tear basil leaves and place on top of roasted vegetables.

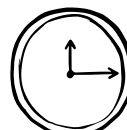

Grate the cheese right onto the pans, allowing cheese to melt. Serve warm and enjoy!
